FOR YOU

While it is mandatory for professionals such as teachers, legal and health practitioners, religious leaders, and volunteers to report any suspected child abuse, all citizens are responsible for taking care of the well-being of children in our communities. If you suspect a child is being abused, neglected or at high risk, it is your duty to report it.

Report child abuse and neglect by sending the word “help” to 079 769 1207 and we will call you back (a standard rate of 50c per SMS applies).

DSD toll free: 0800 220 250

Police: 10111

Childline: 116
