

The Freedom Charter

Adopted at the Congress of the People, Kliptown, on 26 June 1955

the People of South Africa, declare for all our country and the world to know:

South Africa belongs to all who live in it, black and white, and that no government can justly claim authority unless it is based on the will of all the people;

our people have been robbed of their birthright to land, liberty and peace by a form of government founded on injustice and inequality;

our country will never be prosperous or free until all our people live in brotherhood, enjoying equal rights and opportunities;

only a democratic state, based on the will of all the people, can secure to all their birthright without distinction of colour, race, sex or religion; and therefore, we, the people of South Africa, black and white together equals, countrymen and brothers adopt this Freedom Charter and we pledge ourselves to strive together, sparing neither strength nor courage, until the democratic changes here set out have been achieved.

The People Shall Govern!

every man and woman shall have the right to vote for and to stand as a candidate for all bodies which make laws;
the people shall be entitled to take part in the administration of the country;
the rights of the people shall be the same, regardless of race, colour or sex; bodies of minority rule, advisory boards, councils and authorities shall be replaced by democratic organs of self-government .

All National Groups Shall have Equal Rights!

there shall be equal status in the bodies of state, in the courts and in the schools for all national groups and races;
the people shall have equal right to use their own languages, and to develop their own folk culture and customs;
national groups shall be protected by law against insults to their race and national pride;
preaching and practice of national, race or colour discrimination and contempt shall be a punishable crime;
apartheid laws and practices shall be set aside.

The People Shall Share in the Country's Wealth!

the national wealth of our country, the heritage of South Africans, shall be restored to the people;
the mineral wealth beneath the soil, the Banks and monopoly industry shall be transferred to the ownership of the people as a whole;
other industry and trade shall be controlled to assist the wellbeing of the people;
the people shall have equal rights to trade where they choose, to manufacture and to enter all trades, crafts and professions.

The Land Shall be Shared Among Those Who Work It!
