SPECIAL ADVERTISEMENTS

AMENDMENT OF TENDER:PRODUCTIVITY SOUTH AFRICA
REQUEST FOR A QUOTATION*1. Purpose:

Productivity SA requests quotations for the research study on the impact of labour legislation on productivity.

2. Scope of the research:

The research study will focus on the following legislation:

- (a) Labour Relations Act.
- (b) Employment Equity Act.

The study will investigate the impact which the above-mentioned Acts have on productivity of workers in 5 industries.

It should be noted that literature review was done and completed in-house.

Terms of reference:

The following are terms of reference:

- (a) To investigate the impact which the Labour Relations and Employment Equity Acts have on productivity of workers in the following 5 industries—finance, business services, retail, construction and municipalities.
- (b) To obtain data and information through interviews with local companies and institutions in the above-mentioned industries.
- (c) To submit the final report.
- (d) To participate and present the final report in the seminar that will be organized by Productivity SA at a date which will be decided by the institution.

3. Submission date of the quotation:

Productivity SA requests a quotation and a proposal by not later than the 15th April 2009. Brief curriculum vitae should be attached to the quotation. The proposal should address the following details:

- Resources i.e. staff profiles.
- Experience.
- A detailed workplan with deliverables and a timeline.
- A clear understanding of the terms of reference.

Other requirements are the latest tax clearance certificate and a verified BEE compliance certificate. Failure to submit these documents by the closing day of the tender will automatically disqualify the proposal.

4. Commencement and duration of the research:

The research should commence on the 18th May 2009, and should take at most 3 months once a contract is entered into between Productivity SA and the approved tenderer.

For further details please contact Siphok Kunene at Productivity SA, (011) 848-5469. siphok@productivitysa.co.za

PRODUCTIVITY SA

REQUEST FOR A QUOTATION

1. Purpose

Productivity SA requests quotations for the research study on the impact of labour legislation on productivity.

2. Scope of the research

The research study will focus on the following legislation:

- (a) Labour Relations Act.
- (b) Employment Equity Act.

The study will investigate the impact which the above-mentioned Acts have on productivity of workers in 5 industries.

It should be noted that literature review was done and completed in-house.

Terms of reference

The following are terms of reference:

(a) To investigate the impact which the Labour Relations and Employment Equity Acts have on productivity of workers in the following 5 industries—finance, business services, retail, construction and municipalities;

(b) to obtain data and information through interviews with local companies and institutions in the above-mentioned industries;

(c) to submit the final report;

(d) to participate and present the final report in the seminar that will be organized by Productivity SA at a date which will be decided by the institution.

3. Submission date of the quotation

Productivity SA requests a quotation and a proposal by not later than the 15th April 2009. Brief curriculum vitae should be attached to the quotation. The proposal should address the following details:

- Resources i.e. staff profiles
- Experience
- A detailed workplan with deliverables and a timeline
- A clear understanding of the terms of reference

Other requirements are the latest tax clearance certificate and a verified BEE compliance certificate. Failure to submit these documents by the closing day of the tender will automatically disqualify the proposal.

4. Commencement and duration of the research

The research should commence on the 18th May 2009, and should take at most 3 months once a contract is entered into between Productivity SA and the approved tenderer.

KZN DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

NOTICE TO ALL SERVICE PROVIDERS

This publication is a repeat of a previous notice of similar content published in November 2008 in all media, which was effective and applicable commencing from 17 November 2008.

Please note that all service providers who supply goods and render services to the KZN Department of Education must ensure that they have an official Purchase Order Note issued by the Department before they supply goods or render any services.

Any goods supplied or services rendered without an official Purchase Order Note are supplied or rendered:

- (a) at the risk of the service provider;
- (b) on personal capacity of the official that requested the service; and
- (c) not for or on behalf of the Department.

An official that requests a Service Provider to supply goods or render services without an official Purchase Order Note does so on his/her personal capacity and is therefore personally liable for the payment of goods supplied or services rendered.

The Department hereby absolves itself from payment for goods or services rendered without an official Purchase Order Note.

Further the KZN Department of Education shall neither honour nor entertain any claim whatsoever arising from the service rendered without an official Purchase Order Note.
