- 18. (1) If the competent authority at any stage of considering an application has reason to believe that the EAP managing an application or a person compiling a specialist report or undertaking a specialised process may not comply with the requirements of regulation 17 in respect of the application, the competent authority must—

- (a) notify the EAP and applicant of the reasons therefore and that the application is suspended until the matter is resolved; and

Determination of assessment process applicable to application

19. (1) When appointed in terms of regulation 16(1), an EAP must in accordance with regulation 20 determine whether basic assessment or scoping must be applied to the application, taking into account—

- (a) any guidelines applicable to the activity which is the subject of the application; and
- (b) any advice given by the competent authority in terms of regulation 5.

(2) An application must be managed in accordance with—

- (a) Part 2 of this Chapter if basic assessment must be applied to the application; or
- (b) Part 3 of this Chapter if S&EIR must be applied to the application.

Determining whether basic assessment or S&EIR is to be applied to application

20. (1) Basic assessment must be applied to an application if the authorisation applied for is in respect of an activity—

- (a) listed in a notice issued by the Minister or an MEC in terms of section 24D of the Act identifying further activities for which environmental authorisation is required and stipulating that the procedure described in Part 2 of this Chapter must be applied to applications for environmental authorisation in respect of those activities; or
- (b) for which permission has been granted in terms of subregulation (4) for basic assessment instead of S&EIR to be applied to the application.

(2) S&EIR must be applied to an application if—

- (a) the authorisation applied for is in respect of an activity listed in a notice issued by the Minister or an MEC in terms of section 24D of the Act, identifying further activities for which environmental authorisation is required, and stipulating that the procedure described in Part 3 of this Chapter, must be applied to applications for environmental authorisation in respect of those activities;
- (b) permission has been granted in terms of subregulation (3) for scoping instead of basic assessment to be applied to the application; or
- (c) the application is for two or more activities as part of the same development and S&EIR must in terms of paragraph (a) or (b) be applied in respect of any of the activities.

(3) If an applicant intends undertaking an activity to which basic assessment must be applied in terms of subregulation (1) and the applicant, on the advice of the EAP managing the application, is for any reason of the view that it is unlikely that the competent authority will be able to reach a decision on the basis of information provided in a basic assessment report, the applicant may apply, in writing, to the competent authority for permission to apply S&EIR instead of basic assessment to the application.

(4) If an applicant intends undertaking an activity to which S&EIR must be applied in terms of subregulation (2) and the applicant, on the advice of the EAP managing the application, is for any reason of the view that it is likely that the competent authority will be able to reach a decision on the basis of information provided in a basic assessment report, the applicant may apply, in writing, to the competent authority for permission to apply basic assessment instead of S&EIR to the application.

Part 2: Application subject to basic assessment

Submission of application to competent authority and steps to be taken after submission of application

21. (1) If a basic assessment must be applied to an application, the applicant or EAP managing the application must submit an application form, including a declaration of interest by the EAP and any documents referred to in regulation 12(2)(b), to the competent authority before conducting basic assessment.
