2005 LIBRARY WEEK BIBLIOTEEKWEEK

Compiled by / Saamgestel deur GRIZÉLL AZAR-LUXTON

It was that time of the year again - Library Week - and we were once again amazed and inspired by the creativity and ingenuity of librarians and volunteers alike. Learn Read Succeed... the Library Week slogan - effective in its simplicity yet one that got the message across - reinforced by the concept of a library built from books - was the basis of the campaign. Exciting projects developed from this concept and the photos and descriptions published are only the tip of the iceberg of what libraries really got up to this year. Space is unfortunately always at a premium but we are are working on a plan to bring you more coverage next year.

Biblioteekweek - daardie tyd van die jaar wanneer ons opnuut verstom staan voor die kreatiwiteit en vindingrykheid wat bibliotekarisse en vrywilligers aan die dag lê om van hierdie projek 'n sukses te maak. Leer Lees Presteer... - sterk dog treffend in sy eenvoud - die leuse waarop vanjaar se projek gebaseer is en wat verder onderskryf is deur die konsep van 'n biblioteek gebou met boeke. Opwindende projekte het weereens vanjaar die lig gesien en by gebrek aan spasie is die foto's en nuus wat hier geplaas word slegs 'n beperkte keuse van vanjaar se aktiwiteite. Ons werk tans aan 'n plan om volgende jaar meer dekking aan die projek te verleen.

Tydens Barrydale Biblioteek se vol program moes kleuters 'n karakter(s) uit 'n storie teken. Hulle werke pryk nou aan die voorkant van die uitleentoonbank. Daar was lekker flieks vir die jongspan, biblioteekbesoeke deur laerskole, en 'ou' groepspeletjies is gespeel waarna almal lekker skyfies kon eet. Vir volwassenes was daar verversings met heerlike plaatkoekies, uitstallings van die kinders se werk, 'n kasteel gebou van die wynrooi Britannica's, en 'n uitstalling oor Dalene Matthee.

A large reusable vinyl banner sponsored by The Friends of Bellville Library welcomed patrons to Library Week. Inside the posters from the Library Service and a quaint library built with books at the issue desk reinforced this year's theme, Learn Read Succeed.

Other exciting activities included a talk by Dan Sleigh, the entertaining of seniors from the community and a craft sale by seniors at a market in the foyer of the library. Here Lona Gericke (children's librarian) shares her experience of using stories, songs, and finger games in an enjoyable story-telling experience for babies and toddlers.

The Friends of the Bothasig Library presented an exciting daily programme which included yoga demonstrations, painting on different surfaces, repairing of books by the volunteer team, beading, Scouts, sign language, as well as a lecture on Egyptology. The beading demonstration by Jeanette Childs (left) proved to be very popular and is ongoing.

Boekhuisies is met groot entoesiasme in Brackenfell Biblioteek gevou.

George Biblioteek het gevoel dat die tema, Leer, Lees en Presteer hom goed geleen het tot aktiwiteite vir ons kinders en jeug. Montessori het George Biblioteek besoek vir 'n gedramatiseerde storie, Die drie varkies, wat by die 'huisie' konsep aangesluit het. Die uitdrukkings op die gesiggies vertel sy eie storie.

One of Goodwood Library's illustrious guests was author Johan Bakkes - here seen with Lorraine Mathewson (librarian).

For the young ones there was a Foukids puppet show at Goodwood.
