GROOT DRAKENSTEIN
A GIFT FROM NATURE
INTRODUCTION
The Western Cape Cultural Commission (WCCC) under the auspices of the Department of Cultural Affairs and Sport, manages seven (7) cultural facilities in the Western Cape which offer the inhabitants of the province an opportunity to enjoy the tranquillity and picturesque surroundings. The facilities are conducive for organisations to embark on programmes which add value to addressing social ills and building confidence within individuals.

OVERVIEW OF THE FACILITY
The Groot Drakenstein cultural facility is the perfect venue for all seasons. For the cold winter months it is completely undercover, while in the summer there is the added luxury of a swimming pool to unwind after a long day. The facility is suitable for both indoor and outdoor activities and can accommodate 150 guests overnight.
