INTRODUCTION
The Western Cape Cultural Commission (WCCC) under the auspices of the Department of Cultural Affairs and Sport manages seven (7) cultural facilities in the Western Cape which offer the citizens of the province an opportunity to enjoy the tranquillity and picturesque surroundings. The facilities are ideal for organisations who manage innovative and empowering programmes which add value to addressing social ills and building confidence within individuals.

OVERVIEW OF THE FACILITY
The Koekenaap Cultural Centre is nestled in the valley of the Olifants River amongst the vineyards between Vredendal and Lutzville. It is about 300 km from Cape Town. The facility is suitable for both indoor and outdoor activities and can accommodate 64 guests overnight.

WHAT THE FACILITY OFFERS
A fully equipped kitchen with an electric stove and gas burners (gas is provided by the facility), freezer fridge, pots, pans, microwave oven and urn.

Dining room/conference hall for 80 people.
Accommodation for 64 persons: 3 sleeping dormitories able to accommodate 6-13 persons per unit – 28 persons in total; 9 rondawel-style chalets, able to accommodate 3 persons – 27 persons in total. Units are equipped with beds and mattresses. Bath and shower facilities with hot and cold water. The facility is disabled friendly and Flush toilets
