Western Cape Provincial Sport Awards

17 September 2022

Foreword

It is wonderful to be able to once again host this exciting event as we acknowledge and honour the achievements of the sporting stars of our province.

Today we honour our province's sportspeople for the role they have played in bringing hope and motivating others through their examples of hard work, passion and perseverance. We are grateful for each individual who has contributed to shaping and growing the sporting environment in our province.

Over the past few years, we have seen the importance of sport in uniting people and bringing a sense of belonging through participation and support of sporting codes.

Sport is not only important for physical wellbeing, but also for the mental health and wellness of all people. Sport brings a renewed sense of hope and comraderie and it is important that we keep bringing this to all people.

Thank you to every person who has contributed to sport in our province, whether it is through participation in a code, coaching, volunteering, officiating, technical assistance or administrative support. The sporting world is an ecosystem of different people coming together to work towards a common goal – growing sport and encouraging participation and promotion of sport.

Please continue the great work you are doing in fostering social cohesion and growing a sense of mutual respect and belonging in our communities. Please enjoy this event with us as we celebrate you and your contributions.

Volunteer of the Year

Charmaine Mostert- (Cape Winelands Bowls)

Charmaine has made it her life's aim to voluntarily assist and enable fellow lawn bowlers, unselfishly volunteering and dedicating her free time and energy during club and district matches.

She is the Bowls South Africa database administrator for her club, as well as for Cape Winelands and Boland Bowls. On a weekly basis she promotes bowls activities in the media, Herald and Worcester Standard newspapers, forwarding photographs and articles of club winners, winners of district competitions, open day tournaments, fun days, business league and team-building events. Her greatest passion is coaching, which she successfully undertakes in respect of the Ceres Bowling Club Youth.

Clifton Courtney Swartz- (Western Cape Tennis)

As player, coach and administrator, he has played a significant role in the fight for non-racialism in sport and creating opportunities for people to play sport in some of the most remote rural areas of our land.

He is also serving as a member of the National Transformation Committee for Tennis South Africa and holds a position within the national coaching and governance positions in Tennis South Africa.

Clifton has a passion for township as well as rural sport development and has developed and executed several project proposals to this effect.

Conroy Williams- (Overberg Kickboxing)

In 2019 Conroy decided to give back to the community of Barrydale, by giving kickboxing classes to children and adults of Barrydale. These classes he gives free of charge, and voluntary. He gives classes from his residence in Barrydale using punching bags that are hanging in his garage.

Conroy is very passionate about uplifting the children and the community of Barrydale through sport and always goes the extra mile by looking for sponsors for his students to improve.

Conroy's Motto: "You Are Measured In What You Give Back Not What You Have In Life".

On numerous occasions Chris has offered his services to the Western Province Mountain Biking Commission at no charge when they have hosted development events or clinic's in and around the Western Cape.

John Wessels - (Cape Winelands)

Having had the opportunity this year to train with the Cape Winelands Judo Team made this photo so much more special. The photograph was captured during the South Africa Open Championships on 25 June 2022 in Gqeberha.

The hours of commitment, pain and effort needed to just walk onto the mat cannot be captured in a single photograph. Hopefully the pictures show the commitment needed to go for the opportunity that is in front of you.

In order to execute a throw like this, the thrower requires agility, flexibility and excellent balance to keep control of himself and his opponent while standing on one.

André Arends – (Overberg)

The photograph that was taken on 20 April 2022 in Swellendam at a cross country event. This little boy in the red T shirt didn't have any shoes as part of his sport clothes.

He decided to run with his jean and without shoes.

This photo shows determination and a will to always work hard no matter circumstances.

It does not determine who he is or what he will achieve. He will always aim higher!

Newcomer of the Year
