

TOURIST GUIDE REGISTRATION

Training

In order to register as a tourist guide in the Western Cape, you need accredited training. A full list of trainers and assessors can be obtained on the CATHSSETA (Culture Arts, Tourism, Hospitality and Sport Sector Education and Training Authority) website www.cathsseta.org.za or you may enquire with the Tourist Guide Registration Office.

Requirements to register:

- A completed and signed application form accompanied by the prescribed fee. You can find the application form page by visiting: https://www.westerncape.gov.za/your_gov/243.
- Proof of competence recognised by the South African Qualifications Authority.
- A valid first aid certificate issued by an institution recognised by the Department of Labour.
- A signed code of conduct and ethics for tourist guides.
- Proof of South African citizenship or in the case of a non-South African citizen, a valid working permit granting permission to work as a tourist guide.
