All access routes to Citrusdal is closed

The floods of the week of 8 July have had a severe impact on roads in and out of Citrusdal. A number of important access routes are closed in parts.

- The MR310 that links Citrusdal to the N7 is closed until further notice after a section of the road was washed away, due to the river breaking its banks. It will only be possible to rebuild this road once water levels have subsided. Road users are advised that the washaway is in a different place to the washaway that took place in the floods of June 2023.
- Citrusdal-N7 via MR539 – the low water bridge on this route is under water and is closed until further notice.
- Citrusdal-N7 via Clanwilliam (MR539 to DR2183 and to the N7 via Clanwilliam – the road has been washed away and can therefore not be used until further notice.
- Citrusdal-Ceres via MR310 – this road is closed at the Elandskloof low water bridge until further notice.
