The applicant is given 60days to submit the required documents prescribed in Section 62 of the National Land Transport Act (Act 5 of 2009) in order to uplift the operating license. If the applicant is unable to submit the required documents within the 60day period, he/she may apply to the Provincial Regulatory Entity for an extension of this period. Such an application must be made before the initial 60 day period is over, failing which the approval will lapse.

The Provincial Regulatory Entity may grant the extension for a period not exceeding 30 days. This is a once-off extension and an operator may not apply for multiple extensions.
