There are 8 major terrestrial biomes in South Africa.

There are more than 22,000 indigenous plants in South Africa.

10% of the world’s flowering species are found in South Africa.

Cape Town is home to 3,000 indigenous plants, of which 190 are endemic.

Cape Floral Region:
- The Cape Floral Region covers 0.5% of Africa, but is home to 20% of its flora.
- The Cape Floral Region covers 553,000 ha of land.
- 70% of the Cape Floral Region’s plants can be found nowhere else on earth, 20% of which are currently threatened.

There are 9,000 different species of Fynbos.

2,000 of which grows on Table Mountain.