DIRECTIVE

Dear Sir

DIRECTIVE IN TERMS OF SECTION 28(4) OF THE NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT ACT, 107 OF 1998

1. The Department's Pre-Directive issued on 27 February 2018 has reference.
2. Having considered the evidence before me, I, Dr Eshaam Palmer, in my capacity as Director: Environmental Law Enforcement, hereby issue Mr Danie Schoeman of the Janielle Trust with a Directive in terms of section 28(4) of the NEMA, as you are causing significant pollution and/or degradation of the environment.
3. This Directive relates to non-compliance with section 28(1) of the NEMA.

Details of conduct constituting non-compliance

- During an investigation into allegations of pollution and/or degradation of the environment in contravention of section 28 of the National Environmental Management Act, 1998 ("NEMA") a site inspection was conducted at on farm Geseend Bauerskloof 375/2, Riversdale by an Environmental Management Inspector from the Department's Directorate: Environmental Law Enforcement on 15 December 2015 and 24 November 2016 and it was confirmed that you have commenced and continued with clearing of vegetation, earthworks for construction of a road and excavation and infilling the banks of the Goukou River which is causing significant degradation of the environment.

5. Section 28(1) of the NEMA provides that every person who causes, has caused or may cause significant pollution or degradation of the environment must take reasonable measures to prevent such pollution or degradation from occurring, continuing or recurring, or, in so far as such harm to the environment is authorised by law or cannot reasonably be avoided or stopped, to minimise and rectify such pollution or degradation of the environment.
6. The provisions contained in section 28(5) of the NEMA were considered when determining the measures and timeframes included in this Directive.
- 7. You are hereby directed to:
  - a. immediately cease the activities described in paragraph 4 above, which are causing the above degradation;

- b. submit to the Department for approval, within 30 (thirty) calendar days of receipt of this Directive, confirmation of the audit impact report and a rehabilitation plan compiled by a suitably qualified and experienced independent environmental assessment practitioner, which must include the following:
    - i. assessment and evaluation of the impact of the degradation;
    - ii. identification of proposed remedial and/or mitigation measures;
    - iii. investigate, assess and evaluate the impact on the environment;
    - iv. inform and educate employees about the environmental risks of their work and the manner in which their tasks must be performed in order to avoid causing significant degradation of the environment;
    - v. cease, modify or control any act, activity or process causing the degradation;
    - vi. contain or prevent the cause of the degradation;
    - vii. eliminate any source of the degradation; and
    - viii. remedy the effects of the degradation.
8. If the above report and a plan is approved by the Department, you will be obliged to take the necessary remedial / mitigation measures at your own cost.

Offences and penalties, including failure to comply with this Directive

9. In terms of section 49A(1)(e) of the NEMA it is an offence to unlawfully and intentionally or negligently commit any act or omission which causes significant pollution and/or degradation of the environment or is likely to cause significant pollution and/or degradation of the environment.

10. According to section 49A(1)(f) of the NEMA it is an offence to unlawfully and intentionally or negligently commit any act or omission detrimentally affects or is likely to detrimentally affect the environment.
11. A person convicted of the above offences is liable to a fine not exceeding R10 million or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 years, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
12. Furthermore, in terms of section 49A(1)(g) of the NEMA failure to comply with a Directive is an offence. A person convicted of failing to comply with a Directive is liable to a fine not exceeding R10 million or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 years, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.
13. Furthermore, in terms of section 28(7) of the NEMA, if you fail to comply or inadequately comply with this Directive, the Provincial Head of Department may take reasonable measures to remedy the situation or apply to a competent court for appropriate relief.
14. In terms of section 28(8) of the NEMA, the Provincial Head of Department may recover costs for reasonable remedial measures undertaken to remedy the situation from, amongst others, you.
