Starting out?

Read the Western Cape Starting Your Own Small Business Guide.

Scan QR code to read the guide.

You can also contact your local municipality for a list of business incubators in your area.

Between 16 and 25?

If you are between the ages of 16 and 25 you can visit a Youth Café. Youth Cafés seek to provide the youth a platform where they can access skills and personal development training, economic and social development opportunities, and creative spaces where they are able to express themselves at a local and global scale.

Visit www.westerncape.gov.za/youth-cafe/

Registering your business

When you start a business, it needs to be registered. To do so, fill in the relevant forms and submit them to the Companies and Intellectual Property Commission (CIPC).

Visit www.cipc.co.za or www.bizportal.gov.za

You can also register trading names through CIPC.

Registering with SARS

To register your business for VAT and PAYE.

Visit www.sars.gov.za

Registering for UIF

If you employ staff you need to register with the Unemployment Insurance Fund.

Visit <https://ufiling.labour.gov.za/uiif/> or www.labour.gov.za

Business licences

A business licence is generally required for businesses that need to comply with health and safety regulations. Licences are required for the following businesses:

- ✦ making or selling food which can go off
- ✦ health or entertainment activities (including businesses offering saunas, massages, snooker, billiards, slot machines, night clubs, and cinemas).

Contact your local municipality for more information about the applicable requirements and processes.

Read more at <https://www.westerncape.gov.za/service/business-licences>

Want to do business with government?

To do business with government you need to be registered on the national and provincial Central Supplier Databases. Visit <https://secure.csd.gov.za/> for instructions.

To register on the Western Cape supplier database, visit www.westerncape.gov.za/provincial-treasury for information on how to register and how to find out about tender opportunities available in the province. Remember to also contact your local municipality about how to register on the municipal supplier database.
