A Plantastical Adventure

Felix and Felicity were relaxing on their spaceship when they heard a HUGE BANG! "What's that noise?" asked Felicity. Felix looked out the window. "It's a giant space-bee!" shrieked Felix.

"We were probably in it's way because it's flying away from us." said Felicity. "Oh no! it still damaged our ship!" said Felix.

"Don't worry it will be okay, let's land over there!" said Felicity pointing to what looked like a giant tropical planet. "Sure thing" said Felix in excitement. Suddenly, they lost control and crashed into a dense forest.

The got out of their spaceship and had a look around. They saw beehives the size of a mountain covered by the leaves and petals of the really big plants. "Oh that explains the giant' bee!" said Felix. "Yeah there are so many of those bees here." said Felicity.

As they were looking at the planet in astonishment, Felicity saw something flying towards them. "Aah!" they both screamed.

"Please don't scream!" said a pastel coloured fairy with blue skin, green eyes and sparkling pink wings. "Hi may name is Hafsa and welcome to Plantasia." said Hafsa. Suddenly, they heard cackling. "Oh no! It's Violet Venus!" shouted Hafsa, "Who's Voilet Venues?" asked Felix. "She's the biggest evil venus fly trap and if she doesn't get her way she'll cast a spell on the entire planet!" shrieked Hafsa.

"Well, what's wrong now?" ask Felicity as she filled up with fear!" What do we do?" asked Felix. "I think her spellbook is missing again, we have to find it!" said Hafsa bravely. "Oh! I think I see it, in that tree!" said Felicity. "Great! We can use it to fix our spaceship!" exclaimed Felix.

So Hafsa flew up to the to the tree and got the book. "I found a spell we can use to fix your ship. I'll give it back after we fix your ship." said Hafsa.

The thee friends began: "1,2,3 it's easy, fix this ship immediately!" Suddenly, there was a bright flash of light and their ship was fixed.

"By, and thank you for helping us!" said Felix and Felicity. "Your welcome and bye!" said Hafsa.

Felix and Felicity hopped on their spaceship and flew back into space. "I cant' wait for our next adventure!" said Felix "Me too." said Felicity.
