GEPF Benefit Statements now available on Self-Service App and web

Every year, the GEPF aims to issue Benefit Statements by the end of March. Last year's statements were delayed as we redeveloped the format to align with the Two-Component System legislative changes. That enhancement required a thorough data-verification process, ensuring that member service allocations, account seeding and savings-component withdrawals were accurately reflected in both the service component and the statement.

We thank our members for their patience during this important upgrade. From June 2025, Benefit Statements will be available through multiple channels: the Self-Service App and post.

We remain committed to verifying all data across the different components and to addressing any member queries promptly. We believe this improved, accessible format will enhance our service and help members stay fully informed about their benefits.

Yours sincerely,

GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES PENSION FUND (GEPF)
