Bank of Interactive Questions and Answers

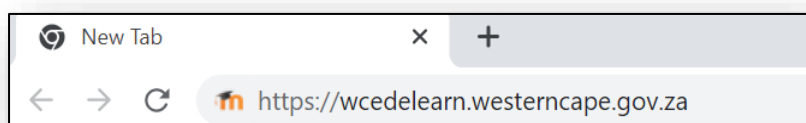

Step-by-step guide to access the Q&A Series

This section shows the user how to access the bank of Q&A using the log-in details that the schools would access via CEMIS online and provide to learners.

LOGIN

Step 1: Your school/teacher will provide your login information (your username and password will be the same) which is available on CEMIS as referred to in eLearning Minute: DEL 0002/2026.

Step 2: Open your web-browser and type in the following web address
<https://wcedelearn.westerncape.gov.za>

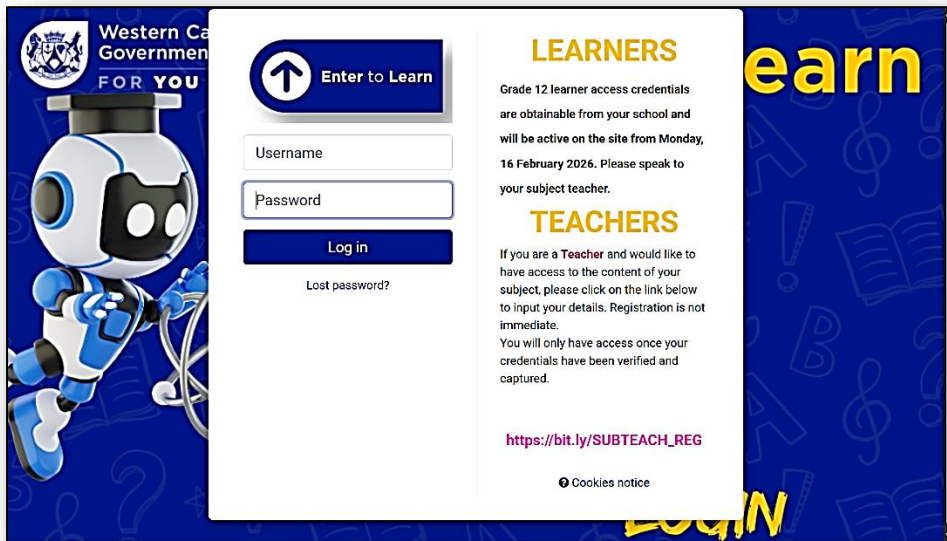

Address Bar:
 Retype or copy and paste the link.

Step 3: Click on the Log in link in the top right section (displayed below),

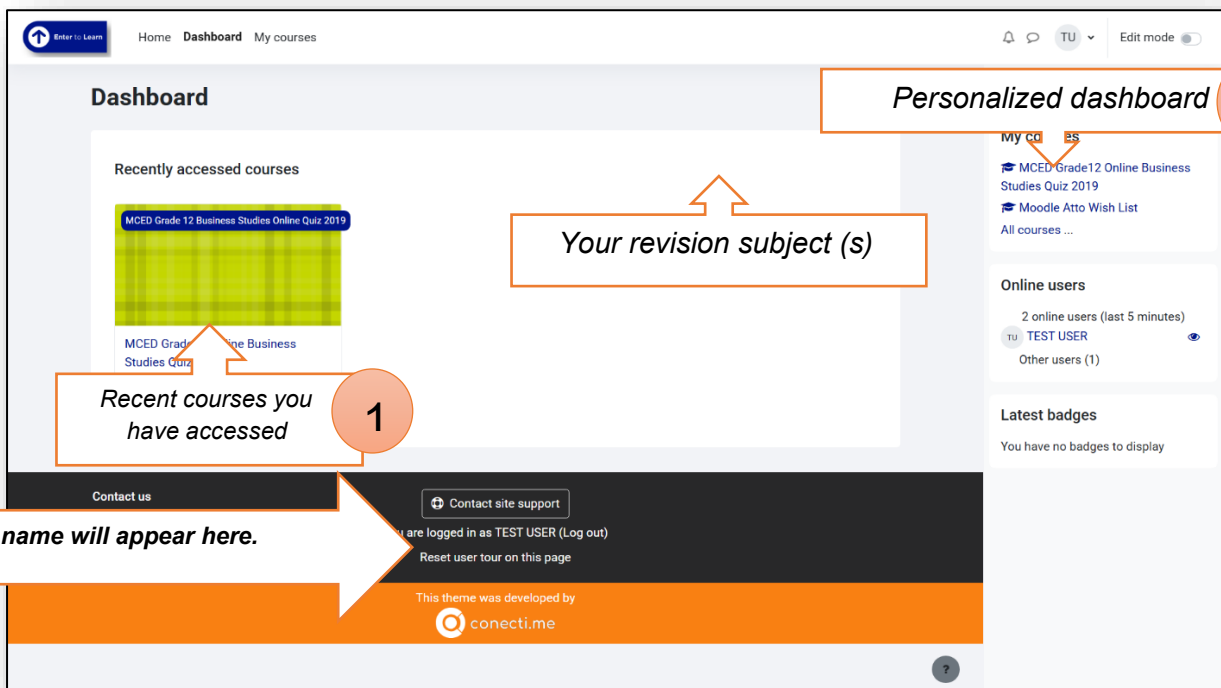

Step 4: Enter your login information into the required spaces, then click Login” (see below)

ORIENTATION OF THE PERSONALIZED DASHBOARD

Step 5: The next window displays a personalized dashboard with all your subjects pre-populated. The main areas and their functions are explained below:

- (1) Navigation - Provides quick access to your Dashboard, Site home, Site pages and My courses (Here you will find the revision subjects in which you are enrolled.)

- (2) Course Overview – A timeline of tasks/ assignments and an overview of your revision subjects is visible under this section
- (3) Blocks Region – Provides different items of information ranging from Online users, Badges and the Calendar.

Step 6: Select the subject you want to revise.

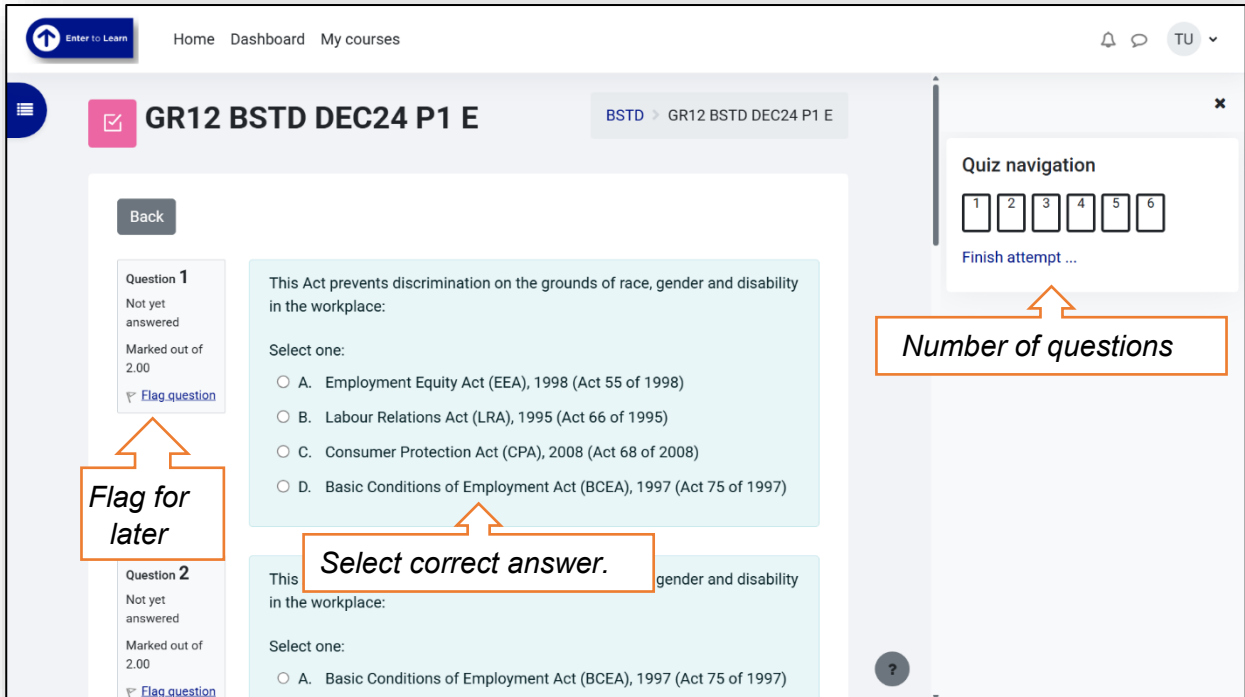

CHOOSE A QUIZ

Step 7: The quizzes are designed to test your understanding of the various topics in your subject and should be attempted once you have studied that topic. The quizzes have been arranged in order of the most recent questions (2021-2022), to the earlier questions (2008-2020).

Choose a quiz and click on the button “attempt quiz now”.

Step 8: Various types of revision short answer questions are given. To note: You can click on the "flag" in the box next to the question to put a temporary marker on it if you want to return to it at a later stage.

Additional information to understand the “Quiz navigation” block.

Notice the Quiz navigation block. You can use it to jump to any question.

- A flagged question is shown with a red triangle at the top right corner.
- Questions on the current page are shown with a thicker border.
- Some questions require a short/essay description. It is shown with the bottom half grey.

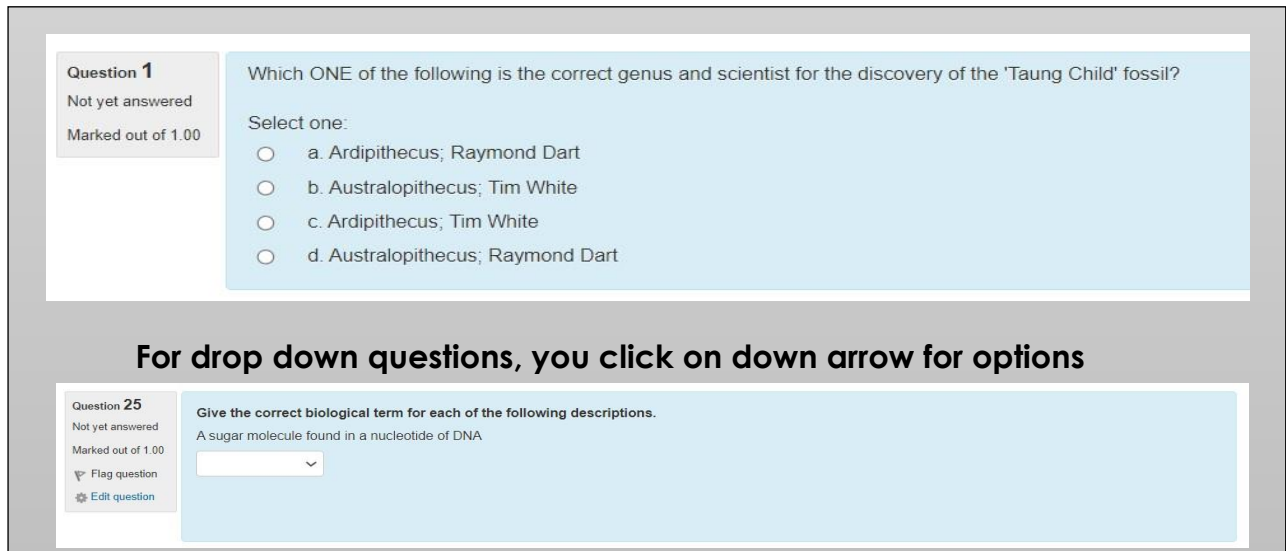

Additional information to answer different types of questions

Various types of questions are presented in the quizzes:

For short-answer questions, you enter a response.

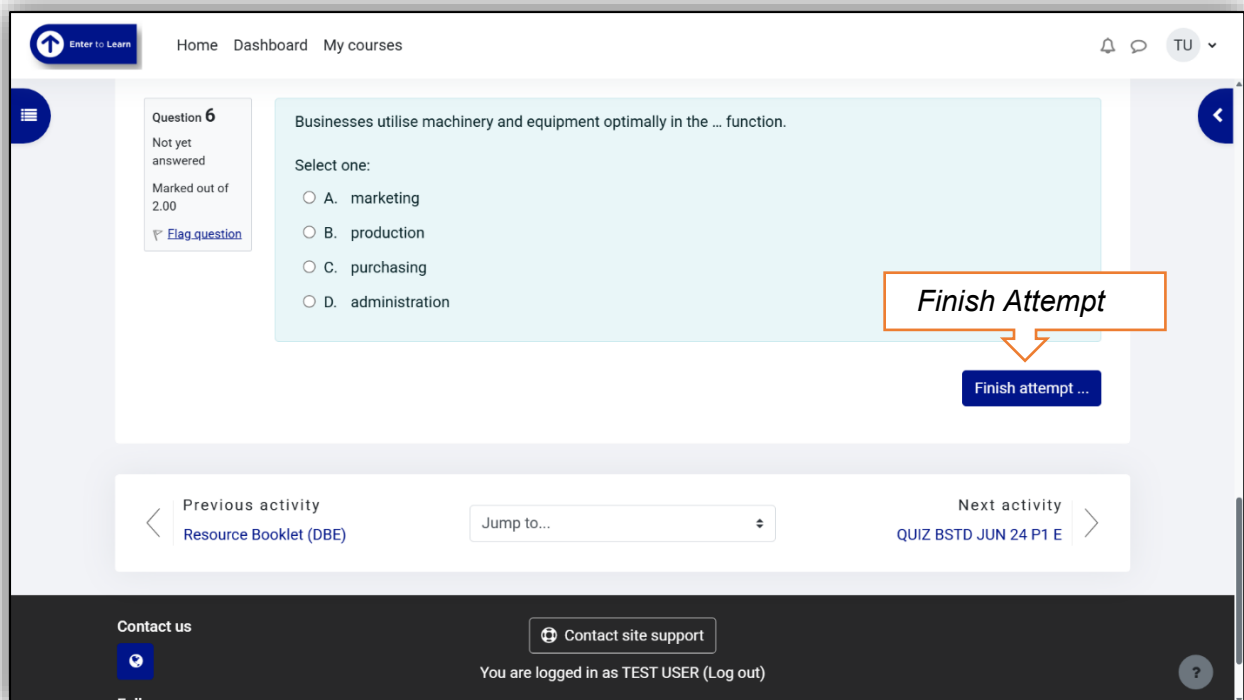

For multiple-choice questions, you select an option (a, b, c, or d)

The screenshot shows a quiz question interface. On the left, a sidebar for 'Question 1' indicates it is 'Not yet answered' and 'Marked out of 1.00'. The main question asks: 'Which ONE of the following is the correct genus and scientist for the discovery of the 'Taung Child' fossil?'. Below the question, it says 'Select one:' followed by four radio button options: a. Ardipithecus; Raymond Dart, b. Australopithecus; Tim White, c. Ardipithecus; Tim White, and d. Australopithecus; Raymond Dart.

For drop down questions, you click on down arrow for options

Step 9: Complete all pages of the quiz using the “Next page” or “Previous page” buttons to navigate between pages. Then, click on “Finish attempt” once you have completed a set of questions.

The screenshot shows a quiz question interface with navigation and finish buttons. The question is 'Question 6', 'Not yet answered', and 'Marked out of 2.00'. The question text is 'Businesses utilise machinery and equipment optimally in the ... function.' and the options are 'A. marketing', 'B. production', 'C. purchasing', and 'D. administration'. A blue button labeled 'Finish attempt ...' is highlighted with an orange box and the text 'Finish Attempt' above it. Below the question, there are navigation buttons: 'Previous activity' (Resource Booklet (DBE)), 'Jump to...' (dropdown), and 'Next activity' (QUIZ BSTD JUN 24 P1 E). The footer contains 'Contact us', 'Contact site support', and 'You are logged in as TEST USER (Log out)'.

Step 10: Before you can see your results, first review your answers. Should you want to change any of your answers, select “Return to attempt”. If you are satisfied with your answers, select “Submit all and finish”. A warning will then pop up reminding you that you can no longer change your answer.

A third callout box points to a question that was answered incorrectly, stating 'If answer is incorrect, the correct answer is given with the review.'

Additional information on How to review a Quiz

Notice the Quiz navigation block.

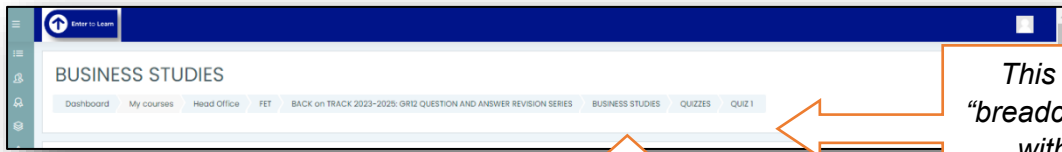

- A correct answer is shown with the bottom half green with a white tick.
- A partially correct answer is shown with the bottom half orange with a white circle in it.
- A wrong answer is shown with the bottom half red.
- An essay question (requiring manual marking) is shown with the bottom half grey.
- In the questions themselves, correct answers will be in green with a check mark next to it. Incorrect answers will be in red with a cross next to it.
- According to the settings, you might get general feedback, specific feedback on each question and/or overall feedback on your final score.
- Although the quiz may have been split into multiple pages, the review will show all the questions on a single page to make it easier to navigate. You can choose to review the quiz with separate pages as it was when you took the quiz.

Step 11: You can now re-attempt the quiz or you can return to your revision subject’s main menu by following the “breadcrumbs” (see below).
