

Caring

We care for those we serve and work with.

- We value all employees and citizens and treat them with dignity and respect.
- We listen actively and display compassion towards employees and citizens.
- We provide support to and show interest in each other as employees and provide support to the citizens of the Province, caring for everyone's wellbeing.
- We show appreciation and give recognition to employees and citizens.