THE NATIONAL EMPOWERMENT FUND TRUST (NEF)

PROVISION OF VIRTUAL OFFICE SPACE (SATELLITE OFFICES) NATIONALLY FOR THE NEF

TENDER No. RFP: NEF 04/2010

The National Empowerment Fund Act No. 105 of 1998 established the National Empowerment Fund Trust (NEF) for the purpose of promoting and facilitating economic equality and transformation, by providing development finance for black empowered South African businesses and by designing investment products in promoting savings and investment activity amongst black South Africans. The NEF is an agency of the Department of Trade and Industry (the DTI) and is committed to the implementation of the Broad Based Black Economic Empowerment Act 55 of 2003 and Codes of Good Practice.

The NEF herewith invites potential service providers that demonstrate high levels of black ownership, to submit proposals for the provision of virtual office space in all provinces, able to support a programme of provincial representations that the NEF is embarking upon.

The NEF will make available the comprehensive RFP document that will outline the specification and functional requirements of the appointments, RFP documents will be available on the NEF website: www.nefcorp.co.za on 12 November 2010.

The NEF reserves the right to award this tender to a black empowered entity demonstrating high levels of black ownership or may award this tender on condition that a joint venture with a black empowered entity is formed.

Tender box location:

All proposals must be submitted clearly marked with the RFP: NEF 04/2010 to the following physical address: National Empowerment Fund, West Block, 187 Rivonia Road, Morningside, Sandton.

Final and completed proposals must be made available to the NEF by no later than 11h00 on 3 December 2010.

Incomplete proposals will be rejected.

Note: Faxed proposals will not be accepted.

AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH COUNCIL (ARC • LNR)

IN THE COMMERCIALIZATION OF THE ARC'S RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT OUTPUTS

The Agricultural Research Council (ARC) is South Africa's primary agricultural research and development institution. It is a critical institution in both the National System of Innovation and the National Agricultural Research System. The ARC conducts fundamental and applied research. We generate new knowledge, develop human capital and foster innovation in agriculture. The ARC's capability is organised to support five major R&D business areas: Animal Health, Animal Production, Grain Crops, Horticulture Crops, and Natural Resources & Engineering. Our facilities and R&D teams are distributed throughout South Africa's Agricultural production regions.

The Office for Technology Transfer (OTT) of the ARC strives to, amongst other functions, increase the extent to which its technical innovations, based on its R&D output, and its intellectual property portfolio are disseminated for public use and benefit.

The ARC, through its OTT invites expressions of interest from suitably experienced and qualified entities with a demonstrable track record in the space of technology transfer and commercialization, to enter into partnership for the transfer of technology. The expression of interest particularly invites entities interested in forming partnerships in the following areas:

- R&D outcomes commercialization;
- Technology evaluation for the purposes of commercialization;
- Legal services (Corporate Law, Commercial Law, Litigation) pertaining to the commercialization of intellectual property rights;
- Business plan or commercialization plan development and implementation;
- SMME development and support;
- The commercialization (including licensing) of all forms of intellectual property, including but not limited to horticultural, grains, range and forestry cultivars and propagation material, such as seed, patents on new agricultural implements designs, animal health (vaccines, diagnostics) production (livestock management systems) and nutrition technologies, knowledge products (book, CD's, posters), farm produce, biological control agents, as well as remote-sensing and information systems

This call is not a request for proposals. It is issued to inform potential service providers of the ARC's broad requirements, and to enable the ARC to access the potential of respondents to provide the required services. When necessary, the ARC will issue a request for proposals to those respondents whom the ARC has assessed on the basis of the expressions of interest received to this call.

Information: Respondents are to supply information such as identity, composition, purpose, mission, main services offered, current customer base, key partners, and a brief description of infrastructural capacity to provide service.

Consortia: If a consortium of service providers wishes to participate, the consortium should elect a lead member, who will be responsible for delivery on contracts entered into with the ARC.
