

PROGRAMME

Friday, 13 June 2014

*Subject to change

Organised by:

Owned by:

SOUTH AFRICAN BOOK FAIR

Room 1.41
Time	Theme	Event
10:00	Educating for the 21st Century	School Principals and parents Gavin Fish and Marc Falconer, explore the challenges and opportunities in the new world your teenager inhabits. Essential listening for educators and parents of teens, with a Q & A session afterwards.
11:00	Books for brunch with Nancy Richards	Bestselling author Susan Lewis talks to popular radio personality Nancy Richards, about life, and the writing life. Q & A session afterwards
12:00	Books and Bricks - A success story at Manyano school	Sindiwe Magona has collaborated with Harvard graduate Dr. Al Witten to tell the story of a community that moved away from gangsterism, alcoholism and unemployment. Inspiring!
13:00	The Classroom of the Future	Barbara Mallinson, Founder of Obami, Riaan Jonck, CEO of Pearson Education and Alexander Polzin from Worldreader chat about what teaching and the ideal classroom might look like in the years ahead.
14:00	Niël Stemmet praat oor erfenis en kos	Neil Stemmet is 'n storieverteller. Hy het aan die voete van sy oupa geleer van stories. Sy passie in die lewe is erfeniskos en dat die stories oor onthou en kos vertel moet word. Omdat ons almal heengaan, is stories die enigste wat oorbly in die wêreld. Daarom ook is resepte deel van sy stories, en is suiwerder kos, soos ons uit oorvertel geërf het, so belangrik.
15:00 - 17:00	Liefde, spanning, misdaad, intrige en romanse	Kom luister na vier van Afrikaans se merkwaardigste vroueskrywers – Wilna Adriaanse, Karin Brynard, Kristel Loots en Malene Breytenbach – wanneer hulle met Elna van der Merwe gesels oor die verskillende genres waarin hulle skryf.

SOUTH AFRICAN
BOOK FAIR

Room 1.42
Time	Theme	Event
10:00	e-Learning Workshop	Perfect for parents: hands-on-tablets opportunities for parents to learn more about Via-Afrika's apps and using them effectively to enhance their children's learnings. Only the first 40 people will be accommodated. Please register at our stand (F1), up to 30 minutes before the session starts. First come, first served.
11:00	Tech trends in education	Come and listen to the latest and greatest tech trends changing the face of education today. Presented by Pearson Education.
12:00	Doing it your way: Writers becoming publishers	Much is being made of self-publishing. But there are many snakes in the grass. Brent Meersman will talk about Missing Ink, a new writers' publishing co-operative that already includes Pieter-Dirk Uys, Stephen Gray, John Matisson, Nicholas Ashby and Brent himself.
13:00	Increasing readership in African languages, do we have what it takes?	Ms. Thenjiswa Ntwana, Mr. Xolisa Tshongolo, Prof. Sandile Gxilishe in conversation with the Executive Head - Centre for the Book: Mandla Matyumza
14:00	Teachers: e-Learning with Via Afrika	For teachers: explore how to bring digital learning to the classroom, using e-textbooks and Via Afrika's educational apps. Only the first 40 people will be accommodated. Please register at our stand (F1), up to 30 minutes before the session starts. First come, first served.
15:00	e-Learning with Macmillan	Teaching with digital – best practice
16:00	The Staging Post - getting published with Jacana	Jacana presents their bespoke publishing packages designed for people who want to publish solo

SOUTH AFRICAN BOOK FAIR

Room 1.43
Time	Theme	Event
10:00 - 11:30	“Are Trout South African?” Identity and belonging in South Africa	How do we look at ourselves? How do we categorize others? Who belongs and who doesn't? Exploring issues of South African identity are Duncan Brown, author of Are Trout South African?; Johann Rossouw, author of Verwoerdburg; Adam Haupt, author of Static: Race & Representation in Post-Apartheid Music, Media & Film + 1. Session chaired by the irreverent and erudite Marianne Thamm
11:30 - 12:15	A page of your own	Career Opportunities in the Publishing and Printing Sector: An overview by the Fibre, Processing and Manufacturing Seta
13:00 - 14:30	PASA private event	By invitation only
14:30 - 16:00	Doctors, nurses and the life of hospitals - a History of Medical Education in South Africa	Teaching hospitals and medical education in apartheid South Africa has shaped the South African medical fraternity today. Discussing are ex Doctor Maria Phalime, author of Postmortem - the Doctor Who Walked Away; Vanessa Noble, author of A School of Struggle: Durban's Medical School and the Education of Black Doctors in SA; Simonne Horwitz, author of Baragwanath Hospital, Soweto. A History of Medical Care 1941 – 1990; and session chaired by CT Vice Chancellor Max Price
16:00 - 17:30	Breaking the silence on the COSATU rift	The Past that Was, and the Future that will be - General Sam Kikine, a veteran, a high treason trialist and a survivor of the struggle against apartheid is launching the first of a series of six books on his involvement in the struggle and life in general. The book also deals with trade unions in this country and internationally.

SOUTH AFRICAN
BOOK FAIR

Literary Forum 1
Time	Theme	Event
10:00	Search of Happiness - a Novel from an emerging young voice	The first book in Cover2Cover's emerging writers series, Sonwabsio Ngcowa writes a poignant, lyrical novel about Nana, a young girl who moves to Masiphumelele in Cape Town. There she struggles to fit in at her new school, and when she and Agnes find love in unexpected places, Nana learns first hand just how brutal ignorance can be and how hard it is to hold on to happiness.
11:00	Mentorship in the world of editing	You've done an editing course and perhaps edited a friend's thesis, or a community newsletter. You want to launch your editing career, but you're not sure of yourself... Come and find out how a PEG mentorship can help you improve your skills and develop your confidence under the constructive guidance of a mentor with many years' experience.
12:00	Awesome SA - Awesome Sales	Derryn Campbell, publisher of Awesome South Africa, (shortlisted for the Nielsen book sellers' Award and has sold over 50 000 copies), shares her experiences of creating a highly successful book
13:00	Tick-tock, tick tock - Ramping up the tension	Crime authors Mike Nicol, Michael Stanley and Chanette Paul chat crime, and how building tension is the key to successful crime writing. Chaired by Jonathan Amid.
14:00	The business of doing business in Africa	Revered pioneer and businessman Peter Vundla, author of Doing Time, chats about the African way of getting things done.
15:00	80 Gays around the world	Brent Meersman talks with Pieter Dirk Uys about his latest book, 80 Gays around the World, in which he explores gay lives in 18 countries and on six continents, asking: how do gay men live in different parts of the world? How do they see themselves? How have they survived over the centuries, mostly in places hostile to them?
16:00	Laaste Dans, Drienie	Steve Hofmeyr gesels oor sy nuutste boek en die inspirasie daaragter.

Organised by:

Owned by:

SOUTH AFRICAN
BOOK FAIR

Literary Forum 2
Time	Theme	Event
11:00	Eendag op 'n reëndag - Meesterstorieverteller Wendy Maartens aan die woord	Kinderboekskrywer Wendy Maartens se werk wissel van liriese, aktuele prentboeke soos Prinses Mossienes en Lena se bottelboom tot vermaaklike hervertellings van bekende volksverhale en fabels in bundels soos Eendag op 'n reëndag en Die mooiste dierestories. Kom luister hoe Wendy meer vertel oor haar storiereis – en die betowering en genot van stories.
12:00	Twee kante van die Kaap - Nanette van Rooyen en Eldridge Jason in gesprek	Nanette van Rooyen se Ek was hier en Eldridge Jason se Gerook is albei realistiese tienerverhale wat in die Wes-Kaap afspeel. In Ek was hier word Seepunt en sy bonte mengelmoes van karakters ingespan as agtergrond vir 'n liefdesverhaal oor twee tieners wat deur middel van omgewingsvriendelike graffiti kommunikeer. Gerook delf na die donker onderwêreld van tik op 'n skynbaar idilliese klein Weskusdorpie. Hierdie twee Kaapse jeugboekskrywers tree vir die eerste keer met mekaar in gesprek oor hul werk en die Kaapse ruimte waarin dit afspeel.
13:00	Poetry Lunch Hour	Poet Gabeba Baderoon followed by four diverse poets from the Free State in Setswana, Sesotho, Zulu and English - Charmaine, Jahrose, Hector, Dr Kool.
14:00	Young adult writing workshop	Aimed at aspirant writers aged 8 - 15, master storyteller and illustrator Marjorie van Heerden teaches you the art of telling a story through words and pictures
15:00	Michiel Heyns is back!	Award-winning Michiel Heyns is back with a darkly comic tale. Chatting to him about his new book, A Sportful Malice, author of The Spiral House, Claire Robertson
16:00	“Just because people don't exist, doesn't mean they are not real”	Pieter-Dirk Uys has written not only his own memoirs but also autobiographies of his alter-egos Evita Bezuidenhout and Bambi Kellermann. Uys will discuss the nature of autobiography.
17:00	The big reveal	The incorrigible Ben Trovato finally hangs up his Sunday Times Whipping Boy hat and removes the shades - could he be she?

SOUTH AFRICAN
BOOK FAIR

Kidzone age 3 - 7
Time	Theme	Event
09:30	Stories come to life	Kick off the morning with vibrant and dynamic storytelling and publishing cooperative - Montloane - as they make their stories come to life using dolls, toys and other props.
10:00	Books for breakfast	Come listen to master storyteller Sindiwe Magona tell stories for breakfast. Book inspired crafts and colouring to do afterwards
11:00	Oh help! Oh no, It's a Gruffalo!	Come meet the Gruffalo and have your photo taken. Thando Nkosi will read Julia Donaldson's modern classic - The Gruffalo.
12:00	Keep the Beach Clean	Sophie von der Heyde (Southern African Sea Life: A Guide for Young Explorers) and Two Oceans Aquarium treat littlies to a chat and puppet show about the beach and sea, with books and colour in activities afterwards.
13:00	How to Catch a Star	Transport yourself to another world as we read award-winning author and illustrator, Oliver Jeffer's - How to Catch a Star.
14:00	Where's Wally?	Come meet Wally himself as he guides you through one of his many adventures
15:00	Dogdetective William	Join author Elizabeth Wasserman and her famous dogdetective William (English and Afrikaans) for some marvelous adventure. For readers 7-10
16:00	Jojo's Wire Car	A heartwarming tale of a young African boy's determination to enter a Wire Car Competition by creating his toy car against all odds, told by the author herself. Colouring in afterwards.
17:00	Fortunately the Milk	Does your Dad forget things? Do you like pirates, dinosaurs, Wumpires and aliens? Come hear all about them and make your very own magical milk carton.