

TIME	THURSDAY 2 nd	FRIDAY 3 rd	SATURDAY 4 th
9h00 – 10h00	Opening Ceremony for the Learning Fair 2004	Are Learnerships Delivering or are Skills Programmes the Preferred Route?	How Posture Affects the Way in Which we Learn and Succeed
10h00 – 10h50	Progress towards Developing a Provincial Human Resource Development Strategy.	Women's Learning	Drug Abuse and Tik. (Repeat)
11h00 – 11h50	Understanding Learnerships: Who and What is involved	Refugee Identity and Access to Education.	Careers: There's a whole world of opportunities out there – how do we find them and prepare for them
12h00 – 12h50	Poverty Reduction – The Importance of Social Capital and Trust:	Improving Learner Performance in Maths, Science and Languages.	Multimedia Education Support for Teachers: A look at what's out there (Repeat)
13h00 – 13h50	Museums as Educational Institutions.	Drug Abuse and Tik.	CLOSE
14h00 – 14h50	Teacher Stress: What can be done about it?	Visit by MEC Cameron Dugmore
15h00 – 15h50	Managing and Supporting the Impact of HIV/AIDS in Education	Multimedia Education Support for Teachers: A look at what's out there.
16h00 – 16h50	Teacher Development: What are we doing to make sure that teachers can manage the challenges of the new curriculum?	Schooling and the Economy

Please RSVP Charlene @ (021) 461 5735 or 462 6229 for your reservations.