Wording of Sections

Acts / Labour / REMUNERATION OF PUBLIC OFFICE BEARERS ACT NO. 20 OF 1998 / 2. Salary, allowances and benefits of President.—(1) The President shall be paid, apart from any privilege which he or she may enjoy, such salary and allowances as may be determined from time to time by resolution of the National Assembly, after taking into consideration—

2. Salary, allowances and benefits of President.—(1) The President shall be paid, apart from any privilege which he or she may enjoy, such salary and allowances as may be determined from time to time by resolution of the National Assembly, after taking into consideration—

- (a) the recommendations of the Commission;
- (b) the role, status, duties, functions and responsibilities of the President;
- (c) the affordability of different levels of remuneration of political office bearers;
- (d) current principles and levels of remuneration in society generally; and
- (e) inflationary increases.

(2) Section 8 (1) (d) of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962), shall apply to such portion of the remuneration of the President as the National Assembly may from time to time determine by resolution, as if such portion was an allowance granted as contemplated in that section.

(3) The National Assembly may determine different portions under subsection (2) in respect of different amounts of remuneration.

(4) The salary and allowances to which the President is entitled in terms of this section, apart from any other privilege that he or she may enjoy, are paid to him or her in monthly instalments, the first month to be reckoned from the date on which he or she assumes office as contemplated in section 87 of the Constitution.

(5) (a) Upon his or her retirement, the President shall be paid such pension and other pension benefits as may be determined from time to time by resolution of the National Assembly, after taking into consideration the recommendations of the Commission.

(b) On the President's death, such pension and other pension benefits as may from time to time be determined by resolution of the National Assembly, shall be paid to his or her widow, widower, dependant or nominee, including his or her estate, as he or she may elect.

(6) The State shall contribute to a medical aid scheme of which the President, a former President or his or her widow or widower or dependant is a member, such an amount as may be determined by resolution of the National Assembly.

(7) Any amount payable to the President, or any other person or institution, in terms of this section, is paid out of and as a charge against the National Revenue Fund.

(8) Any money paid to the President in terms of a resolution of Parliament as contemplated in section 79 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1993 (Act No. 200 of 1993), prior to the coming into operation of this Act, is regarded as having been determined under this Act.

Acts / Labour / REMUNERATION OF PUBLIC OFFICE BEARERS ACT NO. 20 OF 1998 / 3. Salaries and allowances of members of National Assembly and permanent delegates.—(1) Members of the National Assembly, excluding members of the Cabinet and Deputy Ministers, and permanent delegates shall be entitled to such salaries and allowances as the President may from time to time determine by proclamation in the Gazette, after taking into consideration—

3. Salaries and allowances of members of National Assembly and permanent delegates.—(1) Members of the National Assembly, excluding members of the Cabinet and Deputy Ministers, and permanent delegates shall be entitled to such salaries and allowances as the President may from time to time determine by proclamation in the Gazette, after taking into consideration—

- (a) the recommendations of the Commission;
- (b) the role, status, duties, functions and responsibilities of different members of the National Assembly and different permanent delegates;
- (c) affordability of different levels of remuneration of office bearers;
- (d) current principles and levels of remuneration in society generally; and
- (e) inflationary increases.

(2) Despite the provisions of subsection (1), a member of the National Assembly or a permanent delegate who holds different public offices simultaneously, is only entitled to the salary, allowances and benefits of such office for which he or she earns the highest income.

(3) Section 8 (1) (d) of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962), applies to such portion of the remuneration of a member of the National Assembly or a permanent delegate as the President may from time to time determine, as if that portion was an allowance granted as contemplated in that section.

(4) The President may, in terms of subsection (3), determine different portions in respect of different amounts of remuneration.

(5) The payment of salaries and allowances of members of the National Assembly and permanent delegates is subject to the rules and orders of the National Assembly and the National Council of Provinces, respectively.

(6) Subject to subsection (5), the Secretary to Parliament shall pay in monthly instalments to every member of the National Assembly or every permanent delegate who has begun to perform his or her functions in terms of section 48 or 62 (6) of the Constitution, as the case may be, excluding members of the Cabinet and Deputy Ministers, the salaries and allowances to which such a member or delegate is entitled in terms of this section, the first month to be reckoned—

- (a) in the case of a member of the National Assembly—
 - (i) designated in terms of item 16 of Schedule 2 to the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1993 (Act No. 200 of 1993), as amended by Annexure A to Schedule 6 to the Constitution, from the first polling day of the election in question;

[Sub-para. (i) substituted by s. 1 (a) of Act No. 9 of 2000.]

Wording of Sections

- (ii) nominated in terms of item 23 (1) of the said Schedule 2 to fill a vacancy, from the date on which the previous member vacated his or her seat in the National Assembly or the date of receipt of the nomination by the Speaker of the National Assembly, whichever is the later date; and
- (b) in the case of a permanent delegate appointed—
 - (i) in terms of section 61 (2) (b) of the Constitution, from the first sitting day of the provincial legislature concerned after its election; or
 - (ii) in terms of section 2 (3) of the National Council of Provinces (Permanent Delegates Vacancies) Act, 1997 (Act No. 17 of 1997), from the date of his or her appointment.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 1 (b) of Act No. 9 of 2000.]

Wording of Sections

(8) Any money paid to a member of the National Assembly or a permanent delegate in terms of the Payment of Members of Parliament Act, 1994 (Act No. 6 of 1994), prior to the coming into operation of this Act, shall be deemed to have been determined as such under this Act.

Acts / Labour / REMUNERATION OF PUBLIC OFFICE BEARERS ACT NO. 20 OF 1998 / 4. Salaries and allowances of Deputy President, Ministers and Deputy Ministers.—(1) The Deputy President, Ministers and Deputy Ministers shall be entitled to such salaries and allowances as may be determined by the President from time to time by proclamation in the Gazette, after taking into consideration—

4. Salaries and allowances of Deputy President, Ministers and Deputy Ministers.—(1) The Deputy President, Ministers and Deputy Ministers shall be entitled to such salaries and allowances as may be determined by the President from time to time by proclamation in the Gazette, after taking into consideration—

- (a) the recommendations of the Commission;
- (b) the role, status, duties, functions and responsibilities of a Deputy President, a Minister and a Deputy Minister;
- (c) the affordability of different levels of remuneration of political office bearers;
- (d) current principles and levels of remuneration in society generally; and
- (e) inflationary increases.

(2) Despite the provisions of subsection (1), a Deputy President, a Minister or a Deputy Minister who holds different public offices simultaneously is only entitled to the salary, allowances and benefits of such office for which he or she earns the highest income.

(3) Section 8 (1) (d) of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962), shall apply to such portion of the remuneration of a Deputy President, a Minister or a Deputy Minister as the President may from time to time determine, as if that portion was an allowance granted as contemplated in that section.

(4) The President may determine different portions under subsection (3) in respect of different amounts of remuneration.

(5) Every Deputy President, Minister and Deputy Minister shall be paid the salary and allowances to which such office bearer is entitled in terms of this section in monthly instalments, the first month to be reckoned from the date on which such office bearer begins to perform his or her functions as contemplated in section 95 of the Constitution.

(6) The amount payable in respect of salaries and allowances shall—

- (a) in respect of a Deputy President annually form a charge against the National Revenue Fund, and the provisions of this subsection shall be deemed to be an appropriation of every such amount; and
- (b) in respect of a Minister and Deputy Minister be paid from monies appropriated by Parliament for that purpose.

(7) Any money paid to a Deputy President, a Minister or Deputy Minister in terms of the Remuneration and Allowances of Executive Deputy Presidents, Ministers and Deputy Ministers Act, 1994 (Act No. 53 of 1994), prior to the coming into operation of this Act, shall be deemed to have been determined as such under this Act.

Acts / Labour / REMUNERATION OF PUBLIC OFFICE BEARERS ACT NO. 20 OF 1998 / 5. Salaries, allowances and benefits of traditional leaders, members of provincial Houses of Traditional Leaders and members of National House of Traditional Leaders.—(1) Traditional leaders, members of any provincial House of Traditional Leaders and members of the National House of Traditional Leaders shall, despite anything to the contrary in any other law contained, be entitled to such salaries and allowances as may from time to time be determined by the President after consultation with the Premier concerned by proclamation in the Gazette, after taking into consideration—

5. Salaries, allowances and benefits of traditional leaders, members of provincial Houses of Traditional Leaders and members of National House of Traditional Leaders.—(1) Traditional leaders, members of any provincial House of Traditional Leaders and members of the National House of Traditional Leaders shall, despite anything to the contrary in any other law contained, be entitled to such salaries and allowances as may from time to time be determined by the President after consultation with the Premier concerned by proclamation in the Gazette, after taking into consideration—

- (a) any recommendations of the Commission;
- (b) the role, status, duties, functions and responsibilities of different categories of traditional leaders, different members of the Houses of Traditional Leaders in the various provinces and different members of the National House of Traditional Leaders;

- (c) the affordability of different levels of remuneration of public office bearers;
- (d) the current principles and levels of remuneration in society generally;
- (e) the need for the promotion of equality and uniformity of salaries and allowances for equal work performed;
- (f) the enhancement of co-operation, unity and understanding between traditional communities nationally;
- (g) the extent of the role and functions of traditional leaders across provincial borders; and
- (h) inflationary increases.

(2) Despite the provisions of subsection (1) a traditional leader, a member of a provincial House of Traditional Leaders or a member of the National House of Traditional Leaders who holds different public offices simultaneously, is only entitled to the salary, allowances and benefits of the public office for which he or she earns the highest income, but—

- (a) this subsection shall not preclude the payment of out of pocket expenses for the performance of functions other than those for which such office bearer receives such highest income; and
- (b) where only an allowance has been determined in terms of subsection (1) in respect of a traditional leader's membership of a provincial House of Traditional Leaders or the National House of Traditional Leaders, such a traditional leader shall be entitled to such an allowance in addition to his or her salary, allowances and benefits as a traditional leader.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 2 (a) of Act No. 21 of 2000.]

Wording of Sections

(3) (a) The President may, if he or she deems it expedient after consultation with the Minister and the Premier concerned, by proclamation in the Gazette determine any benefits to which a traditional leader, a member of any Provincial House of Traditional Leaders or a member of the National House of Traditional Leaders shall be entitled, subject to such conditions as the President may prescribe.

(b) If the President decides to determine such benefits, the criteria listed in paragraphs (a) to (h) of subsection (1) shall be applicable, with the necessary changes.

(4) The amount payable in respect of salaries, allowances and benefits to traditional leaders, members of provincial Houses of Traditional Leaders and members of the National House of Traditional Leaders shall be paid from monies appropriated for that purpose by Parliament in respect of the National House of Traditional Leaders and by a provincial legislature in respect of traditional leaders and members of provincial Houses of Traditional Leaders, as the case may be.

[Sub-s. (4) amended by s. (2) (b) of Act No. 21 of 2000.]

Wording of Sections

(5) A traditional leader is a person identified by the Minister after consultation with the Premier concerned by notice in the Gazette for the purposes of this Act.

(6) Despite the provisions of subsection (1), a member of the National House of Traditional Leaders shall be entitled to an allowance as determined by the President by proclamation in the Gazette for actual work performed with effect from 10 April 1997 until a determination is made in terms of subsection (1).

- (g) inflationary increases.

(2) Despite the provisions of subsection (1), a Premier, a member of an Executive Council or a member of a provincial legislature who holds different public offices simultaneously is only entitled to the salary, allowances and benefits of such office for which he or she earns the highest income.

(3) Within 30 days of publication of a proclamation referred to in subsection (1)—

- (a) each Premier must, having regard to the provisions of subsection (1) and the upper limit as set out in the said proclamation, determine the salaries and allowances of members of the Executive Council and the different members of the provincial legislature by notice in the Provincial Gazette;
- (b) the provincial legislature must by resolution, if the provincial legislature is then sitting, or if it is in recess, within 30 days of its next ensuing sitting, having regard to the provisions of subsection (1) and the upper limit as set out in the said notice, determine the salary and allowances of the Premier concerned.

(4) Section 8 (1) (d) of the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962), shall apply to such portion of the remuneration of a Premier, a member of the Executive Council and a member of the provincial legislature concerned as the President may from time to time determine.

(5) The President may determine different portions in terms of subsection (4) in respect of different amounts of remuneration.

(6) The payment of salaries and allowances to members of a provincial legislature is subject to the rules and orders of the provincial legislature concerned.

(7) (a) Subject to subsection (6), the Secretary to the provincial legislature concerned shall pay in monthly instalments to each member of the Provincial Legislature, excluding members of the Executive Council of that province, who swears or affirms faithfulness to the Republic as contemplated in section 107 of the Constitution, the salary and allowances to which such member is entitled.

(b) For the purposes of paragraph (a) the first month shall be reckoned, in the case of a member of the provincial legislature—

- (i) designated in terms of item 16 of Schedule 2 to the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1993 (Act No. 200 of 1993), as amended by Annexure A to Schedule 6 to the Constitution, from the first polling day of the election in question; and
- (ii) nominated in terms of item 23 (1) of the said Schedule 2 to fill a vacancy, from the date on which the previous member vacated his or her seat in the provincial legislature concerned or the date of receipt of the nomination by the Speaker of the provincial legislature, whichever is the later date.

[Sub-s. (7) substituted by s. 2 (a) of Act No. 9 of 2000.]

Wording of Sections

(7A) A Premier and a member of the Executive Council concerned shall be paid the salary and allowances to which such office bearer is entitled in monthly instalments, the first month to be reckoned from the date on which such office bearer swears or affirms faithfulness to the Republic as contemplated in sections 129 and 135 of the Constitution, respectively.

[Sub-s. (7A) inserted by s. 2 (b) of Act No. 9 of 2000.]

(8) The amount payable in respect of salaries and allowances shall—

- (a) in respect of a Premier or a member of the Executive Council be paid from monies appropriated by the provincial legislature concerned for that purpose; and
- (b) in respect of other members of the provincial legislature annually form a direct charge against the Provincial Revenue Fund concerned as provided for by section 117 (3) of the Constitution.

[Sub-s. (8) substituted by s. 2 (c) of Act No. 9 of 2000.]

Wording of Sections

(9) Any salary, allowances or benefits paid in terms of a law to a Premier, a member of the Executive Council or a member of the provincial legislature prior to the coming into operation of this Act, shall be deemed to have been determined as such under this Act.
