Dear Mr Zenzile

Your letter dated 20 August 2012 has reference.

In it you request me to receive a memorandum from the ANCYL and its stakeholders outside the provincial legislature on Monday, 27 August.

I will accept your request if you publicly retract your repeated threats to make the city and the province ungovernable and apologise to the people of the Western Cape for the subsequent violent protests, which resulted in the tragic deaths of four people, numerous injuries and the destruction of public property.

Mayor Patricia de Lille and I have laid a criminal complaint with the SAPS against the ANCYL in relation to these threats, which the police are currently investigating. Accepting your memorandum on Monday, would be tantamount to condoning these threats and the violent protests that have followed during the last four weeks.

If the ANCYL accedes to my request for a public retraction and apology, I will be willing to engage with you in a constructive manner on issues and concerns that are relevant to the Western Cape Government's service delivery mandate.

I always try to be available to meet with communities who have grievances about service delivery. However, I refuse to engage on the basis of threats, intimidation and violence including the destruction of public property. This would be tantamount to endorsing the erosion of our constitution and the rule of law.

Yours sincerely
