

Accountability

We take responsibility.

- We have a clear understanding of our vision, mission, strategic objectives, roles, delegations and responsibilities.
- We all deliver on our outcomes and targets with quality, on budget and in time.
- We hold each other accountable as public servants and know we can trust each other to deliver.
- We take individual responsibility for and ownership of our work, actions and decisions.